Present Times: A Novel

Nava once said that, similarly to what Pessoa had represented in the time of Orpheiu both Ruy Belo and Fierberto Fielder constituted important land- marks beyond which the landscape radically changed. It may be a bit drastic what I suggest, but isn't contemporary philosophy in a drastic state, with the budget cuts, and the fact that today, for students that come from less than rich households, it is downright economically dangerous to pursue a career in academic philosophy.
